SKITS: Hashers now is the time to start thinking about your Hashes ability to entertain. The 2011 Nash Hash wants some of the Hashes to perform a skit on stage for the entertainment of all. It might be a comic telling jokes, a singer, dancing or magic, it might be a group effort or a talented individual but whatever you have might be just what we need. If you have an idea or can put together something we will soon be asking for Hashes to enter their skits for the Sunday night entertainment. So think/plan/scheme ahead and we can make the Sunday night entertainment the best yet at a Nash Hash.

Skits will be roughly 4 minutes each and if there are too many entered we may have to choose those that combine to offer a good balance of acts. Therefore if you do have an idea please let us know with a brief synopsis of the proposed act. We are aiming for a fun evening and although the rude and ribald will be welcome there will be a ban on really coarse or offensive stuff. The best Skit will be the one that is voted for by the audience. Hash pride will definitely be at stake.

Enter your skit at nashhash2011@gmail.com (pop the word Skit in the post title so it goes into the correct mailbox).
